Fetish

Cara Bruce is the award-winning editor of the site VenusOrVixen.com and editor of Best Bisexual Women's Erotica. Cara's latest installment, Best Fetish Erotica gives a voyeuristic view into a world of corsets, spanking, cigarette smoke, red chairs, and high heels. Inspired by her pure fascination about fetishes themselves, Cara passionately edited this 21- story anthology with care – and it shows. From Susie Bright's encounter with a sleazy furry in "Selfish Fetish," to Jerry Stahl's confessional "Girdle Boy," to Alison Tyler's fascination with knives in "Blades" Fetish unlocks the door to the world of erotic fetishes.

"Which leads to my delight in editing Best Fetish Erotica. Of all the books I have edited, this may be my favorite. I loved reading these well-written, juicy stories of people's fetishes- and voyeuristically wondering if they were true... my fetish perhaps, and I hope yours." Cara Bruce

Cara Bruce lives in San Francisco where she runs the erotic press Venus or Vixen and has published books such as Embraces: Dark Erotica. Cara also writes for many websites, magazines, and newspapers such as Salon.com and The San Francisco Bay Guardian.
