Fix It, Make It, Grow It, Bake It The D.I.Y. Guide to the Good Life By Billee Sharp

In this D.I.Y. guide to the good life, you'll learn how to edit your life—because in the long run, less is more. Pedal now or paddle later! You and your family can live more joyfully and far more creatively, all on a dime.

Coming out on Earth Day, April 22nd, Fix It, Make It, Grow It, Bake It is not to be missed. Author Billee Sharp shares her freecycling, budget-savvy, barter-better wisdom, encouraging us to harvest green and find happiness in our gardens. Based on a sensible foundation of global responsibility and foresight for the next seven generations, Billee Sharp's philosophy is compelling. This is the only way forward for a society that is only now beginning to see the planet-damaging, economy-collapsing error of its ways. From the radical common sense introduction to the practical how-tos and yummy recipes, Fix It, Make It, Grow It, Bake It is a step-by-step handbook to revolutionizing your spending habits and reclaiming your quality of life in the process.

- Learn how to eco-clean your house with lemon and lavender.
- Cure minor maladies from the kitchen cabinet.
- Cook meals for pennies.
- Start a community garden and learn how to seed share.
- Ditch the grass and raise organic veggies in your front lawn.
- Organize a trade-for-what-you-want free flea market.
- Repair nearly anything.

Billee Sharp was born and raised in a little village in Dorset, England. She studied anthropology and ancient history at University College London. Billee went on to style herself a career as a contemporary art curator and gallerist. Working with Damien Hirst and others, she opened Building One, a huge gallery in an old biscuit factory, and mounted a series of group shows, which contributed to the emergence of the YBAs. Billee moved to San Francisco, California in 1993 where she started both a family and record label. In 2009, Billee founded The Mission Casbah, which is a fair trade, free market for craftsmen and artisans. She lives with her husband and two sons.
