Erotic Travel Tales

Edited by Mitzi Szereto

"Having an affair could be likened to having a holiday: a refreshing break from the habitual, a sensual re-awakening to new possibilities. But losing yourself in these tales of erotic travel is like having an affair and a holiday simultaneously. The joy of sex and the pleasures of the text rolled into one." — Erotic Review

Escape the mundane. Fill your senses with the sights, sounds, and aromas of faraway places, the perfume counters of Dubai and the hidden waterfalls of St. Lucia, a café overlooking the beach on Tenerife and a men's bathhouse on a back street in Brussels. These are stories of lush, ripe sex. In Linda Jaivin's "Peking Duck," a photographer eludes her watchful interpreter to tumble with a circus acrobat at the Old Summer Palace in Beijing. In Donna George Storey's "Ukiyo," an overworked professor tours the red light district of Kyoto, attracting unexpected pleasures. And Holly Farris's magical "Continental Breakfast" puts a twist on the second honeymoon, when a woman staying at an auberge in Brittany finds that the cook and gardener can read her desire better than her neglectful husband. Foreign Affairs presents luminous erotica with the subtle, sexy undercurrent of unfamiliar waters.

About the editor:

Mitzi Szereto edited two Erotic Travel Tales anthologies and is the author of Erotic Fairy Tales: A Romp Through the Classics. She has also written six books as M. S. Valentine, including The Governess and The Possession of Celia.
