Live Out Your Wildest Dreams

In this new collection of erotica, Rachel Kramer Bussel has gathered couples' most popular fantasies and created a sizzling, no-holds-barred series of explicit encounters in which couples turn their deepest desires into reality. These powerfully written stories meld the spicy and the sweet to fill 24 hours of sex—from early morning wake-up calls through mid-afternoon quickies to late-evening romps, IRRESISTIBLE is filled with sex around the clock, featuring work by Sommer Marsden, N. T. Morley, Jordana Winters, and Teresa Noelle Roberts.

“A lot of the erotica that comes across my desk focuses on the spark of attraction when strangers meet, the cataclysmic sensation of falling, hard, for someone new and exciting. That makes sense, because there’s built-in drama and erotic tension when two people discover there’s intense chemistry between them. With this anthology, though, I wanted to explore what happens after that, once those people have been together a while (even a short while). I wanted to see what sparks fictional couples could produce on the page, and the results are, well, scorching.”

—Rachel Kramer Bussel, from the foreword
